

SUPPLIER AWARD PROGRAM 2017: AND THE WINNERS ARE...

IMELCO, the largest group of independent electrical distributors in the world, announced the winners of the 2017 Supplier Awards for Business Excellence on June 1 in Crakow, Poland.

IMELCO manufactures were recognized for business excellence in the following areas:

- Best Cooperation with National Headquarters (Legrand)
- Excellence in Digitalization (Schneider Electric)
- Outstanding results in Commercial Policy, Delivery, Logistics, and Loyalty to Wholesalers (OBO Bettermann)
- Inspiring Development / overall winner of the SAP 2017 (Hager)

Winning companies were selected by the Managing Directors of organizations in each member organization as well as evaluations provided by member wholesalers executives from all over the world.

Established over 25 years ago, IMELCO is the leading consortium of independent electrical wholesale companies in the world.

Since IMELCO was founded, IMELCO has been providing essential support to member wholesalers and manufacturers bringing into focus, the significant role of the 'independent' electrical distributors as well as the growing importance of international cooperation.

Based in Brussels - Belgium, IMELCO is a consortium of marketing groups from 14 countries in Europe, Australia, North America, and Russia. Collectively, the group includes 1,140 electrical distribution companies which operate 5,000 points of sales worldwide.

SPREAD THE WORD AND SHARE THE NEWS!

Stay on the move!